

MANY TEN DOLLAR BILLS GIVEN FOR NEWBERRY VOTES

Witnesses Testify of Funds Received from Managers

GOVERNMENT WINS AND LOSES

(By The Associated Press)

Greenville, S. C., March 2, 1936.—A grand jury was out today in an attempt to introduce testimony relating to Senator Truman H. Newberry's connection with others of the 122 men on trial with him in United States district court on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal elections and mail fraud laws. At the end of the morning session Frank C. Bailey succeeded in bringing before the jury the fact that the chief defendant had contributed $1,500 to the state central committee of the Republican party.

Like the afternoon proceedings he was balked in an effort to introduce letters relating to 147 subscriptions to Harvey's Weekly.

Between these incidents of the trial the government put on the stand numerous witnesses whose testimony was calculated to con-lect Roger Andrews of Menominee and Judd Velland and Henry Botach of Escanaba, with payments of various sums to men who are persuaded thereby to work in the Harvey Lowrey case in the 1918 primary campaign. Most of these witnesses got $10 for their part, aitho one said Judd Velland gave him an additional $10 and told him not to reveal the extra amount to "the others."

There was also some testimony intended by the prosecution to discredit the part of primary expenses which the Newberry senatorial committee filed with the secretary of state on September 15. This was done by newspaper publishers who told what amounts they had received or billed to the Newberry committee for advertising space and then swore that they could not find all the items listed in the certification of the part which was placed in evidence forty-eight ago. Some of these disputed items, the defense showed were not billed until a day or two before the report was compiled bearing of the Newberry contention that some bills were not placed in the report when it was made up. The government countered this cross testimony by evidence that in such instances no delayed payments were on pace contracted for a month or more ahead of the report.

The trial came over the Harvey Weekly letters and before it was comed Martin W. Littleton and James O. Murrin of the defense were contending against the points made by Frank C. Dailey and W. H. Elchorn of government counsel.

The barred exhibits were offered thru George M. Gottfried business manager of the North American Review and Harvey's Weekly, who came her from New York to identify the correspondence.

There were letters from Senator Newberry and the publishing company in which the yearly subscription price and finally an order from the senator for 147 subscriptions to "friends in Michigan."

This list included 72 of the defendants.

Mr. Littleton opened the objection for the defense in which the record of the initial letter was dated April 17, 1919. He argued that this late date put the correspondence beyond the pale of the case at trial which was, he said, limited to charges of conspiracy in the campaigns ending November 5, 1918.

Mr. Murray said that the defense would like to know how the jury would be relieved of the burden of the allegation."

Mr. Dailey contended that the letters showed a knowledge and continuation of the relationships established by the alleged conspiracy and Judge Elchorn argued that it was possible by subsequent acts, to deny relationships even when those acts occurred after the relationship had ended, so far as the purposes of a particular case were concerned.

Judge Clarence W. Sessions held with the defense. He said that he followed the general practice of permitting wide latitude in cases such as that on trial, but that he could not see how the letters had any connection with the

Let us hope that the committee appointed to name the new lake will speedily begin its work. The momentous question should certainly be decided before spring days come. If delayed until then, there may be too many poetical suggestions.

One proof that prohibition is somewhat effective is found in the announcement that the Keeley Institute building at Dwight is to be used for a government hospital. Thru many years that has been a flourishing home for inebriates, and it is only loss of patronage that has brought about the changed line of activity.

Whoever thinks this has not been an unusual winter should consult the weather record. During the past forty three days and nights there has been but one-tenth of an inch of snow fall. Remember, too, this is the mid-winter period, the season of the year when Illinois usually has its cold weather.

It is gratifying to note that physicians gathered in convention in Chicago express the belief that never again will the influenza be so wide-spread as in the past few months. The physicians say they know more about its control now than ever before, and further they are willing to give the public credit for general co-operation with physicians in preventive measures.

One relief organization certainly came thru the war period with its reputation greatly enhanced. The Salvation Army is stronger today than ever before. Its good name has been so firmly established that its organization-workers have been welcomed in Bulgaria and Poland, with the new Czechoslovakia country is offering special housing and other facilities if the Army will send representatives there.

Norman Gould, New York Republican, is very anxious to have Gov. Lowden state his views on military training. It is likely that the New Yorker is not so much interested in those views, except as they may have relation to his own favorite, Gen. Wood. It seems that in some quarters the general has been criticised for his stand on military training, and Mr. Gould is hoping that the Illinois governor must be subject to like criticism. All of which indicates that Mr. Lowden is more and more recognized as a very formidable candidate.

Men who have busied themselves with automobile statistics believe that there will be 10,000,000 cars in use in the U. S. by January, 1921. Last year the increase over 1918 was 26 percent, and manufacturers and others believe that this year the increase will be still larger. Ten million cars will mean practically one to each twelve persons in the whole U. S. Five is figured as the average family, so that nearly everybody will be riding by 1921. Probably few people know that California has the largest percentage of cars, population considered, with Nebraska second and South Dakota third.

TOO MUCH HARMONY

A financial review suggests that harmony is an important element in keeping down prices because it promotes steady production and gives benefits to employers. So smoothly, it is said, is the system working, that the one danger in the future is beginning to be pointed out—namely, that of too perfect co-operation between employer and employee, to the detriment of the public. That is, when a whole industry becomes thoroughly organized and disciplined under an industrial government, there is danger that these two classes, thoroughly united in interest, will use their power to enrich themselves at the expense of the people who must buy clothing. Professor James H. Tufts, of Chicago, who is one of the arbitrators, call attention to this and says he has argued this point many times with men on both sides. They answer that their arbitrators are farsighted, impartial men of high standing, who will help to watch the public interest, and that they themselves are wise enough to see that very high prices tend to curtail consumption and therefore reduce the income to the industry.

IT'S A TIME FOR PROGRESS

The Springfield Register believes that the capitol city should proceed with a constructive building program. That paper says:

"Springfield's disgraceful streets should be re-paved without any unnecessary delay, but the work, involving an elaborate underground system of conduits, heating mains, gas mains, sewers and other improvements, which must of necessity be permanent, requires that advantage be taken of every possible constructive suggestion regardless of its source."

"The State Register believes the members of the Civic Welfare committee of the Chamber of Commerce have the same objective as the city commissioners—permanent improvements at minimum cost in practical development of a greater Springfield."

"Conflicting selfish interests have no place in this progressive plan. All past prejudices or differences over matters of policy should now be submerged in shoulder-to-shoulder action which has but one objective—the best results for Springfield with the least possible burden of cost compatible with the most practical plan of building, not for today alone, but for future years."

ALWAYS SOMETHING

If one is bound to have the blues, and grumble like the deuce then every blooming thing he views will be for an excuse. Wherever he looks he faces wrong and misery and strife; oh, something always comes along to take the joy from life. He has a small attack of flu, and it has knocked him flat; he stands around and says, "Kerchoo!" and stronger words than that. He tells his woes to other cranks, in voice of doleful pitch, and doesn't give a word of thanks that he is spared the itch. The day is dismal, and he brays, and tears his hair and robe, and he forgets the pleasant days when sunshine soaked the globe. He sadly wails the same old song, or plays it on a fife: "There's always something comes along to take the joy from life." And when one views the world like this, he is hopeless case; he wouldn't know a slice of bliss if pushed against his face. A ton of grief upon this hick is most securely cinched, and he would make some kind of kick if he were being lynched.

PAUL JONES RETURNS FROM TRACTOR SCHOOL

Paul Jones, son of Mrs. W. S. Jones, has returned to the city after spending a week at the tractor school at the University of Illinois, Urbana. The course includes practical work in farm machinery and about half of the time is devoted to lecture work in the classroom. The course has been planned by the university for tractor farmers and each year is attended by many interested persons. The class is limited to twenty-five members, and as the class lasts but a week a large number of farmers are able to take the work.

Various types of gasoline engines are on the floor, all of which have been put out of order, and it is the work of the students to study the difficulty and if possible to remedy it. The work as a whole is of a very interesting and valuable kind.

H. J. McLAUGHLIN IS CANDIDATE IN WEST

Brother of Mrs. Carl E. Black Seeks Republican Nomination for Governor in Nebraska.

Nebraska papers of recent date mentioned the fact that H. J. McLaughlin of Hall county, that state, has become a candidate for governor there on the Republican ticket. Mr. McLaughlin, who has been serving in the Nebraska legislature, is a brother of Mrs. Carl E. Black of this city and is well known in Jacksonville, as he formerly lived here. For a number of years Mr. McLaughlin has been a citizen of Nebraska prominently identified with the livestock and farming interests of the state.

Mr. McLaughlin submits a platform, in which, among other things, he promises to toss the code law over the transom and "restore the management of these affairs to the regular constitutional officers." He also agrees to stay in the office and attend to public business, and dedicates himself to the task of restoring a higher respect for the law and its established institutions, and to see that order is kept while free speech is preserved.

The new candidate is president of the Nebraska Pure Bred Horse Breeders' association, and as such a director of the Improved Live Stock association. He is a member of the state board of agriculture, a member of the state association of county fairs and president of the Central Nebraska Agricultural association. He has been engaged in farming and stock breeding for twenty-eight years.

Mr. McLaughlin is now serving his first term as a member of the legislature, and at the last session had the good road legislation in charge. He was a strong opponent of the governor's code bill and the clash between the two officials was rather sharp. Later when the governor and a large group of Republican legislators got at loggerheads the name of McLaughlin was mentioned as a likely opponent of the chief executive, and a legislative organization formed for the purpose of boosting him as a candidacy.

Now That You Have Rememberd

What Will You Do About It?

—We told you last week that "The point to remember is that clothing is going to cost more next Fall." That a thorough investigation had proven charges of profiteering to be unfounded.

—We are not pessimistic by nature, and don't want to make you so, yet we cannot urge upon you too strongly the one fact that a positive woolen shortage exists, prices are bound to be higher, and that he will be the wise man who anticipates his needs a little and buys now.

—We expect to be in business next Fall as usual, and gladly will make up your suits and overcoats in the same old satisfactory manner; but, wouldn't you feel a lot kindlier towards us if you found that you actually had been able to save a nice sum of money by taking advantage of advice given because of our natural inside knowledge of the clothing situation? Nothing but a miracle can alter the conditions existing, and the age of such miracles is past.

—Anyway, drop in and talk over with me your needs for the near future; I will advise you frankly and honestly.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply. He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days. Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy. Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

Bearing out this contention, mild reservations who heretofore have predicted that the Article Ten provision could be modified if necessary said today that the only chance of ratification lay in the possibility that enough Democrats would accept the provision unchanged.

LIKE ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES
Tells Why a Corn is So Painful and Why Cutting Makes Them Grow.
Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming "corn" corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. The drug is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin.—Adv.

WASHINGTON HONORED AT WESTMINSTER

Patriotic Program Carried Out Sunday Evening at Westminster Church—H. H. Bancroft Made Fine Address.

In accordance with a custom of several years old a patriotic service was given at Westminster church Sunday evening. The pastor, Dr. E. B. Landis, had arranged the program as a Washington memorial and Mr. H. H. Bancroft was the speaker of the evening. The choir, under direction of Miss Ainslie Moore, furnished a special musical program.

Dr. Landis in introducing Mr. Bancroft, referred to a visit he made some years ago to Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington, and to the impressions made at that time. Mr. Bancroft discussed Washington as a citizen in an eloquent and informing way.

The speaker said in the beginning that the spirit of Washington was quite well embodied in his statement to his soldiers after their greatest victory. Washington said at that time: "My brave fellow citizens, in this hour of triumph let nothing induce you to insult your former enemies. It will be sufficient to us to witness their humiliation. Let us leave to posterity whatever there may be huzzahs for us."

Two Pre-Eminent Characters. The story of Washington, Mr. Bancroft said, is one of the most important that adorns history and it is also one of the most familiar. "So I am not expecting at this time to present many new facts. Washington was born in 1732 amid fortunate surroundings. He came of a family of means and had the advantage of splendid home surroundings. We may say that in American history two characters stand out more conspicuously than all others—Washington and Lincoln. We know that Washington was something of an aristocrat—that he came from a family of wealth and position. With Lincoln it was a struggle upward from a humble position. It is one of the splendid facts of American history that we find these two representatives of aristocracy and of the people honored very much in the same way.

"The three epochs in Washington's life may be divided up as follows: first, when he commanded the American forces; second, when he presided at the constitutional convention and third, when he served as president of the U. S."

The Constitutional Convention. Mr. Bancroft then somewhat briefly reviewed the career of Washington as the commander-in-chief of the American forces during the Revolutionary war. He referred to the years from 1773 to 1789 when Washington in comparative retirement at Mt. Vernon watched the progress of events in his country and saw the need for consolidating the interests of thirteen colonies. It was as a retired general and as a student of affairs that he was elected a delegate to the constitutional convention and then became its president. He served for five months as president of that body and rarely expressed an opinion, though it is a matter of record that his influence was a large factor in shaping the work of the convention, so it may be said with truth that he had much to do with the making of that constitution which Gladstone referred to as the greatest document ever written.

In conclusion Mr. Bancroft referred to the deep religious spirit that Washington manifested, for all through his career, "the Father of His Country" made manifest that his reliance was in the Almighty. It has often been said that it was a great faith which made Washington great, and reference was made to this fact by Mr. Bancroft. The audience joined in singing America and with the benediction the very impressive services closed.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE SUNDAY

Building Owned By Miss Mary Caldwell Burned—Dr. W. B. Young's Barn Slightly Damaged.

Fire, probably of incendiary origin totally destroyed a barn on the premises of Miss Mary Caldwell, 931 South East street at 11:40 o'clock Sunday night.

The stable was not being used, but Miss Caldwell said she thought tramps had been sleeping in it recently. Chief Hunt said there was no doubt but that it was set on fire either purposely or accidentally.

Chief Hunt said that the work of the department was considerably hampered by automobile drivers running over the hose in South Main street.

At 10:10 o'clock Sunday morning the department was called to residence of Dr. W. B. Young, 1305 Mound avenue. Fire had started in roof of the barn by a defective stove pipe. Dr. Young extinguished it with a hand chemical extinguisher before the arrival of the department. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

MANY THEMES ARE DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL

Ordinances for Inspection of Oil and Licensing of Vehicles Create Much Discussion—Sewer Situation Also Considered.

Ordinances for oil inspection and the licensing of vehicles were given a first reading at the regular session of the city council Monday evening and laid over under the rules.

Both created much discussion and the session lasted until 10 o'clock which is the record so far for the present city council.

Ald. Cohn reported that the Ford car purchased for the police department had arrived and was all right. Many other things were considered during the evening among them the time honored Brook sewer.

The Proceedings

Roll call all aldermen present except Ald. Ehnie, Graff and Williamson. Mayor Crabtree presiding. Ald. Ehnie and Williamson came in later and took their places in the council.

The minutes of the last regular session were read and approved.

An invitation was read from the local fire insurance underwriters to the council to attend the banquet at the Peacock Inn Tuesday evening. It was received and placed on file.

Mayor Crabtree said he had thought the switch track to the new power plant was an assured fact but that apparently it was not. The mayor was instructed to go to Chicago this week and see if the matter could not be straightened out.

At this point Ald. Ehnie and Williamson came in and took their places in the council.

Ald. Cohn reported that the Ford car purchased from C. N. Priest for the police department had arrived and had been tried out.

Ald. McGinnis reported that Otis Hoffman had not put cinders in East Independence avenue as he had promised. Ald. McGinnis was instructed to see Mr. Hoffman again about the matter.

Fire Hydrants All Working

Ald. Chapin reported that Water Superintendent Cobb had flushed and examined all of the fire hydrants in the city and that they were now in working order.

The bond of P. J. White, superintendent of streets in the sum of $3,000 with W. F. Widmayer, John M. Butler and J. F. Brennan as sureties was presented and approved and placed on file.

Ald. Chapin seconded by Ald. Ehnie offered a motion that the council suggest to the committee appointed to select a name for the lake that the name be the same for both the lake and the park surrounding it. The motion carried.

An ordinance providing for the inspection of oil and providing for fees for the placing of storage tanks underneath the sidewalks was given a first reading and laid over under the rules.

By the provisions of the ordinance which is a most voluminous one, places the inspection of oil in the police department under the supervision of the chief. There was considerable discussion of the provisions of the ordinance relative to rental of storage space under sidewalks. This led into other things in the way of occupational taxes and charge for space used under all sidewalks.

Licensing of Vehicles

An ordinance providing for the licensing of vehicles was also given a first reading and laid over under the rules. This ordinance is modeled after that of the city of Rockford. The fees are fixed on a sliding scale and range from $1 for a one horse vehicle up to $10 for automobiles over 45 horse power.

Mayor Crabtree was instructed to secure a list of automobile owners in the county from the Campbell Circular advertising company of Indianapolis, at a cost of $10.

The mayor announced that Mrs. Clark Green had been secured to do some checking in the office of the city clerk. On motion of Ald. Flynn seconded by Ald. Ehnie the action was approved.

Survey of Sewers

The question of the sewer survey was also brought up by Engineer Henderson. Mr. Henderson said that the survey as outlined by the engineer of the state board of health was not as complete as it should be. He suggested that while the work was being done it might be well to fix the location of the proposed trunk sewer and get some data on excavations and other things that would have to be secured.

There was a great deal of discussion of this matter by the mayor and aldermen. The council finally voted that Ald. Chapin be named a committee of one to cooperate with Engineer Henderson in the work.

Seven boys presented a number in which they told an Indian story and Joyce Lander gave a recitation representing an Indian girl. Superintendent T. M. Tomlinson gave a talk on the American Indian.

ANOTHER REAL ESTATE DEAL CONSUMMATED

Messrs Hopper & Hofmann Become Owners of A. F. Franks Building at Corner of West and North Streets.

Among important real estate transactions recently consummated was the purchase by Messrs. Fletcher Hopper and Harry Hofmann of the A. F. Franks building at the corner of North West street and East North street. This building was erected some years ago by Mr. Franks as a cigar factory but has been in disuse for that purpose since Mr. Franks has been in business elsewhere.

The building is a commodious brick structure and was leased to the Jenkinson-Bode Co. for some time after their own building on East North street was destroyed by fire. More recently it has been used by the American Railway Express Co. Mr. Hofmann said yesterday that he and Mr. Hopper were purchasing the property for an investment altho it is possible that the business of the Ward Book Bindery which they own may be later transferred there. The purchase includes two small residence properties on North West street to the south of the brick building.

MANY AIDING IN Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN

Literberry Precinct Has Early Report of Quota Raised—Miss Roe to Make Address Tonight.

The Morgan county drive for the Y. W. C. A. is now in progress. Several weeks have been spent in the preparatory work and the people are therefore quite familiar with the good cause. Monday morning before 11 o'clock Mrs. Earl Rexroat of Literberry reported to Miss Mary Wadsworth, the county chairman, that the Literberry quota of $35 had been oversubscribed.

Four minute speakers appeared in a number of the churches Sunday morning to present the cause. In this last were Centenary, Mrs. A. B. Applebee; Grace M. E., Mrs. Garm Norbury; Northminster, Mrs. Herbert Capps; State Street, Miss Ethel Wylder; Trinity, Mrs. J. G. Ames; Central Christian, Miss Mary Wadsworth; Brooklyn, Miss Eleanor Thompson. At Westminster, Congregational and First Baptist church the pastors presented the cause themselves.

Meeting Tonight.

Special interest attaches to the meeting to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the David Prince auditorium, when Miss Clara S. Roe, town secretary in the Y. W. C. A. organization, will speak. Miss Roe has specialized in the work of organizing in towns of 10,000 to 25,000 population.

Mrs. Frank Marshall of Rock Island, who is cafeteria secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in her home, will also tell something of that special line of work. Miss Helen Harney last summer engaged in Y. W. C. A. recreational work in Georgia and will speak tonight on "Comradeship of Association."

Mrs. Marshall is the guest of her aunts, Mrs. C. L. Mathis and Mrs. George T. Douglas.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Wadsworth will entertain the Y. W. C. A. workers at tea at her home, 605 West State street, when all will have the opportunity of meeting Miss Roe. It is known that several of the country precincts have practically subscribed their quotas and the reports were expected today. Miss Marie Sibert of the Cloverleaf Co. office has reported to the committee subscriptions of $51.50 from young women in the company's office.

The following verses will be sung at the Y. W. C. A. meeting tonight and all who expect to attend are requested to commit these verses to memory or to clip them out.
